FEDERAL AND STATE CENSUS RECORDS

"FOR ENQUIRE I PRAY thee, of the former AGE,
AND PREPARE thySELF to the SEARCH of the FATHERS.

FOR WE ARE BUT OF YESTERDAY, AND KNOW NOTHING, BECAUSE OUR DAYS UPON EARTH ARE A SHADOW."

BOOK of Job, 8: 8, 9
JUDEO-CHRISTIAN BIBLE

"TO forget ONE'S ANCESTORS is to be A
brook WITHOUT A SOURCE,
A TREE WITHOUT A ROOT."

CHINESE PROVERB

NEW YORK MARRIAGES PRIOR TO 1784

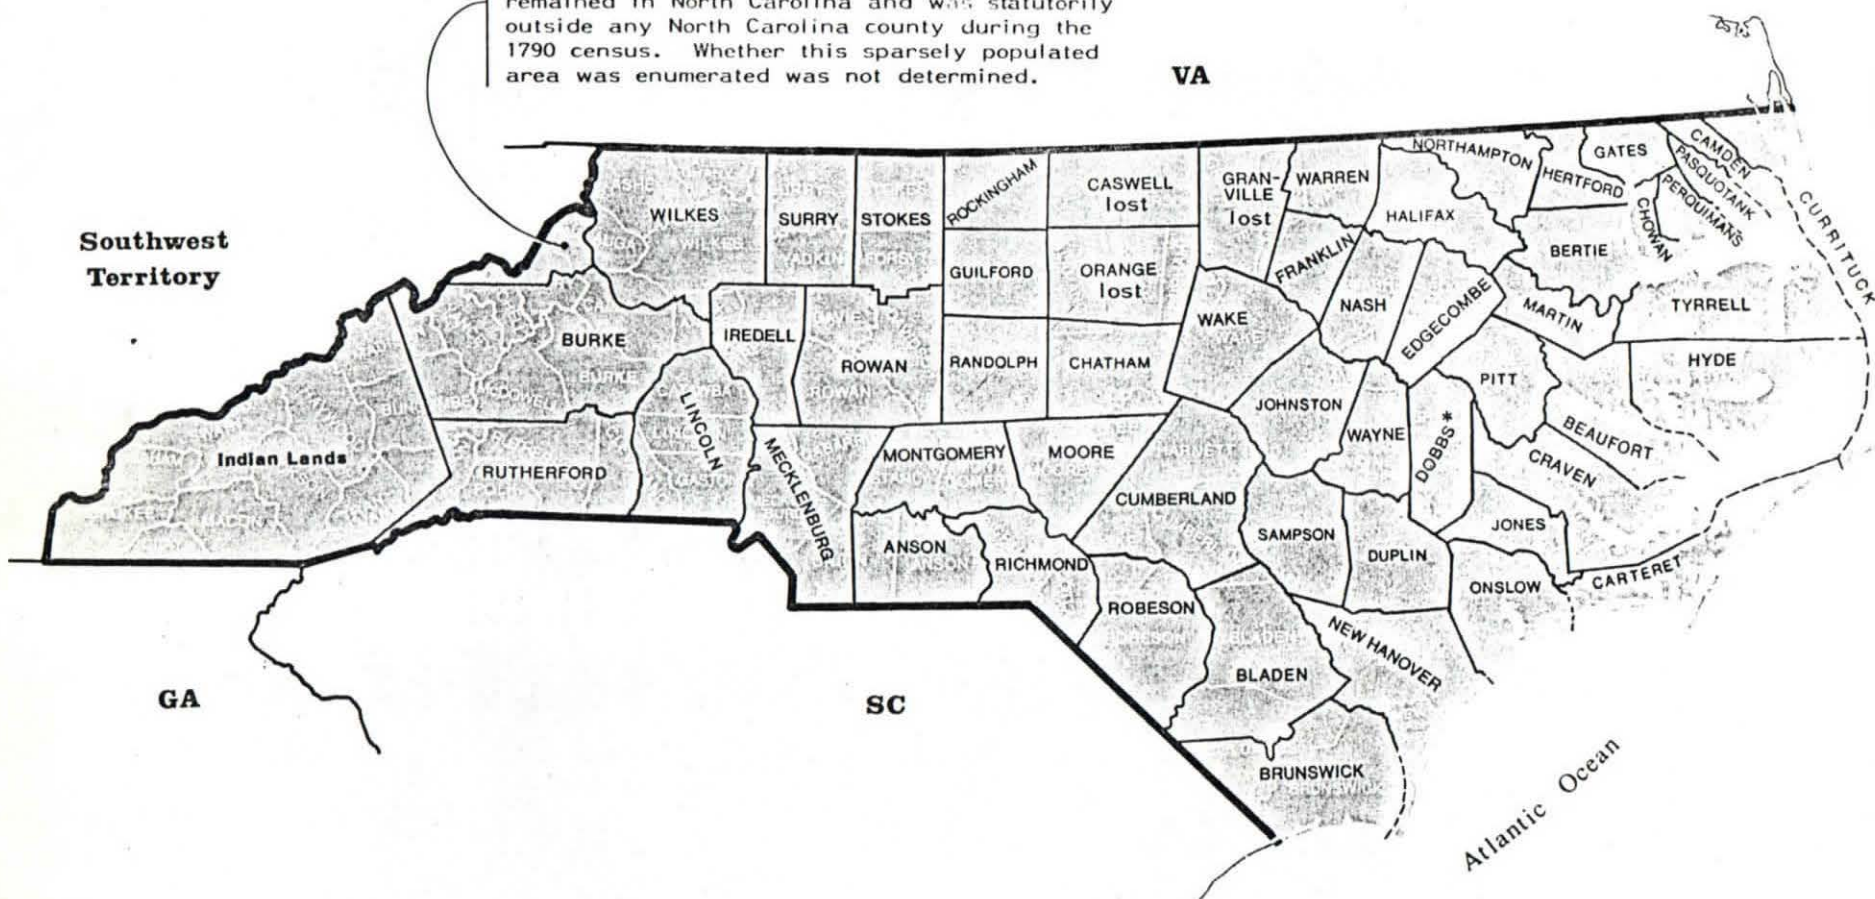

GEORGE FAIRCLOY (FAIRCLOTH)

MARRIED

ELIZABETH GARRICK

ON MARCH 18, 1771 vol. 17, p. 35

When Tennessee as the Southwest Territory was separated from North Carolina in early 1790, a small part of Tennessee's Washington County remained in North Carolina and was statutorily outside any North Carolina county during the 1790 census. Whether this sparsely populated area was enumerated was not determined.

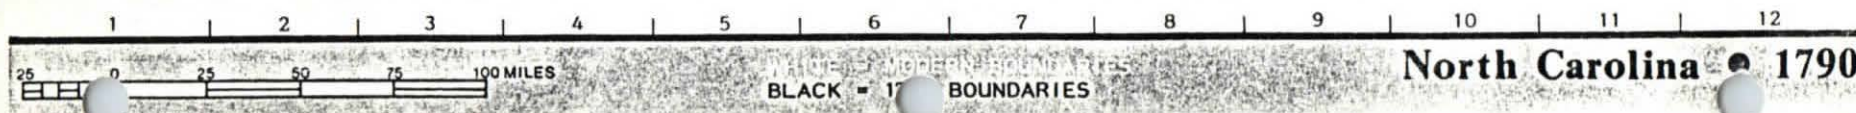

CENSUS AVAILABILITY

Federal census extant for all counties except Caswell, Granville, and Orange, shown as "lost" on map.

*NOTE:

The name Dobbs was dropped when that county was split into Glasgow and Lenoir counties in 1791. Glasgow was then renamed Greene in 1799.

The Henry County U. S. Census enumerated 2,997 white people and 1,027 slaves. All members of both races were listed under each Head of Family. Males listed include all white males and females include all white females in each family. Figures on slaves include males and females of all ages. The Census was certified as follows:

"The number of persons within my division consisting of Four Thousand and Twenty appears in the foregoing schedule, submitted this nineteenth day of November in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty."

(Signed) Bartlett Smith
Assistant to the Marshall of the Southern district of Alabama.

"We hereby certify that a correct copy of the foregoing schedule signed by the said Bartlett Smith, Assistant Marshall, has been set up at two of the most public places within the division, open to the inspection of all concerned, 19 November, 1830."

(Signed) Joshua Doughty
Abner Hill

Human beings are mobile today, and this seems to have been true in the early days of Henry County. Even with the very difficult means of travel available to them, we find constant shifts in location of early settlers entering the county. Motivation was probably safety for self and family in the Indian days, and later that driving urge to find and secure lands upon which to locate and rear a family. Add to this political leadership and business ambition, and we find numbers of people literally moving North, South, East and West during the 1820-1830 period.

The United States Census for Alabama lists only five counties in the 1820 Census. The others apparently were lost. Henry was one of those missing, but two different historians list 2011 whites and 645 slaves living in the area in 1820. This was less than a year after the county was formed. When we consider that this number of persons were contained in an area that extended from Montgomery, Butler, and Conecuh on the North and West, Florida on the South, and Georgia on the East, it means that the huge Wiregrass area was very very sparsely settled.

Early Leaders

We do know some of the leaders of that day who soon found other locations for their talents. For example, David Caldwell was the first Judge of Probate, James Hughes was Sheriff, and Uncle of A. C. Gordan. Green and William Beauchamp of Georgia were early merchants in Franklin. Benjamin Harvey was a representative to the first State Capitol, and J. M. Devereaux was the first State Senator. William C. Watson was an early Representative, and Abner Hill was Sheriff in 1828. Early residents of Franklin included Howell Chitty, Hartwell Tarver, Jarred Patterson and Ira Cushman. All of the above "moved on" before 1830 to seek their fortune elsewhere. Apparently the same forces that brought them from the Carolinas and Georgia into the wilds of the Wiregrass carried them further West or returned them to places of greater safety, and security. We find both of these reasons, but we also find others simply stayed where they were and the reduction of the counties size left them in Pike, Dale or Covington counties when the 1830 census was taken.

*NOTE:

Georgia in the late 1820s unilaterally attached the Indian lands for "judicial purposes" to the five bordering counties indicated on the map with arrows. Whites in these Indian areas were enumerated with the counties.
