SOUTH CAROLINA MARRIAGE LICENSES

Prior to the year 1912, comparatively few marriage licenses were issued in the State of South Carolina.

Only a very few marriage licenses from the 1700's are known to exist. Most of these are for just a handful of counties.

The State of South Carolina passed a new law in reference to marriage licenses in 1912. This new law enforced the requirement for licenses to marry.

To date, there are no known official marriage licenses in South Carolina issued by any county government for marriage of any Woodham prior to the year 1912 when this law was enacted.

12-9-86

Dear Robert Earl,

Hope all is well with you and you'll have a happy holiday season. I saw He Belle Skinner Culpepper last Monday and she said to tell you that it finally came to her when her daddy Creighton Skinner got that old Bible.

John Wesley Woodham married Mary Josey and they had a daughter named Elizabeth.

Elizabeth married Asa Skinner and they had the one son, Creighton, who was He Belle's daddy. Elizabeth died when Creighton was small and Asa then married Leland Moore who raised Creighton.

So Creighton's daddy gave the Bible to him because it had belonged to Elizabeth Woodham Skinner, Creighton's mother. (his oldest daughter)

Creighton gave it to He Belle and she remembers carrying it to Columbia College in 1925 and showing it to one of her professors, who was quite impressed by it.

Best wishes for 1987.

Love,
Ruth

P.S.

If you have H.J.'s address please send it to me the next time you write. I sent him a Christmas card a few years ago and it was returned and I've not been able to get his current address. I wondered if he came to the reunion in May.
