BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES FOR ANDREW JACKSON TURNAGE - 107 Author: Deborah Sue (Gardner) Evetts -964

Andrew Jackson Turnage was born in the State of Tennessee in 1828. He then moved with his parents James Phillip and Elizabeth (Donihoo) Turnage and family to Warren County, Kentucky around the early 1830's and later to Calloway County, Kentucky about the 1850's. (He is shown in the household of his father James Phillip Turnage in the Seventh Census of the U. S. of 1850 in Calloway County. Kentucky, page 459, family No. 178. (See Chapter VI, entitled "Documents" for J. P. Turnage — 468 for clarification and note both Warren and Calloway Counties census show place of his birth is Tennessee.)

When Andrew was about 24 years old, he moved across the Ohio River with his parents to Southern Illinois. The family was moving north to join one of the oldest sons, James, who had already moved to Southern Illinois in 1849 or early 1850. They settled near the little village of Bainbridge in Williamson County in Southern Illinois.

Andrew was 5 feet, 8 inches tall as a young man. He was a very striking in appearance with his black hair and black eyes to set of his dark complexion.

On October 19, 1854, Andrew Jackson Turnage married Jane DeHart in Williamson County, Illinois. He was 26 years old and she was 18 years old. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Reverend James Oglesby, the same minister who had preformed the marriage ceremony of his younger brother, Henry, almost a year earlier.

Andrew and Jane Turnage and their first child, a girl named Mary Elizabeth Turnage born 27 June 1858 in Williamson County, Illinois are listed on the 1860 Federal Census for Williamson County, Illinois in Township, Range 2, page number 839, lines 6 through 8 inclusive, no dwelling is listed, with U. S. Fost Office of Marion, Williamson County, Illinois. This particular census indicated Andrew was a farmer reporting $50.00 worth of personal property.

In late summer of 1862 (Civil War 1861-1865), Andrew Jackson Turnage joined the Union Army and served as a private in the ill-fated Company "G", 128th Regt., Illinois Infantry Volunteers that was disbanded the next year and later he was transferred to the 9th Illinois Mounted Infantry. Andrew received the same military assignments as did his younger brothers Henry L. and Reuben P. W. Turnage. (See Civil War documents in Chapter VI, entitled "Documents" concerning these particular individuals.)

During Andrew's Civil War service with the Union Army he became ill with chronic diarrhea living in camp. There are no records stating that Andrew served in the 9th Illinois Mounted Infantry as did his brothers. His wife Jane testified he came home sick and did not serve in the Union Army until after April 1, 1863. There is no record of a military discharge from army service for Andrew Jackson Turnage, which is surprising that he was not arrested for desertion and returned to military service between the dates of 1863 and 1865, as was for his brothers Henry L. and Reuben P. W. Turnage.

When Andrew returned home from military service his health was broken. Jane was to share only 3 more years more with her handsome husband, but they were to have one more child born in this time of their union, before Andrew was to leave Jane behind forever.

Andrew Jackson Turnage died March 19, 1866 at home in Williamson County, Illinois. He died at the young age of 38 years of an illness (chronic diarrhea) he incurred in the service of his country

Andrew and Jane's children were 8 years, 4 years and 7 months of age at the time of his death. The names and birth dates of their children are as follows:

Mary E. Turnage, born 27 June 1858 James T. Turnage, born 17 August 1862 Henry J. M. Turnage, born 6 August 1865 James and Henry were named after Andrew's father and brothers.

* * * * *

Jane (DeHart) Turnage (1836 - Abt 1928) was born in Tennessee. She and Andrew could not read or write, but her mark can be found in her Civil War widow's pension application papers. Jane raised her 3 children the best way she could, and suffered adversity again when she was denied a Civil War widow's pension in old age on account they could never prove her husband Andrew Jackson Turnage was properly discharged from military service. Various papers and affidavits concerning her request for widow's pension were filed with the government, but were continually denied for lack of evidence. (Copies of some of these papers may be found in this record in Chapter VI, entitled " Documents ".)

Jane DeHart Turnage was poor all of her life and in accordance with 1870 Federal Census of Williamson County, Illinois she had no real estate, but did report personal property worth $20.00. It should also be noted that Jane lived next door to Jane's brother-in-law, William Turnage and three doors down from Jane's sister-in-law Martha Jane (Turnage) Chamness.

In 1890 Jane lived in the Community of Chamness, Williamson County, Illinois and probably died there in the 1920's and was buried in Williamson County, Illinois.

TURNAGE FAMILY ANCESTRAL RECORD

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES FOR JAMES PHILLIP TURNAGE, JR. - 474 AND AGNES MAHALA (GREY) TURNAGE - 922 Author: Deborah Sue (Gardner) Evetts - 964

James Phillip Turnage, Jr. (most often referred to as Phillip and/or Philip Turnage) was born in Warren County, Kentucky in 1825. He was the son of James Phillip and Elizabeth (Donihoo) Turnage.

As a young young man, Phillip was 5" 10 1/2" tall with light hair, fair complexion and blue eyes.

Phillip enrolled in the Union Army during the confrontation of "The War Between The States" (Civil War 1861-1865). He was mustered into service on November 5, 1862 at Camp Butler (Springfield) Illinois. He was assigned to Company "G", 128th Regiment, Illinois Infantry Volunteers and attained the rank of corporal. Other members of his family in this unit were his brothers, Andrew Jackson, Reuben P. W., Henry L. Turnage and his brother-in-law, George B. Chamness.

Phillip Turnage married Agnes Mahala Grey on 16 September 1865 in Williamson County, Illinois. The union of Phillip and Agnes brought forth the following children:

James Phillip Turnage, III, born 1872 in Williamson County, Illinois.
Charles W. Turnage, born 1874 in Williamson County, Illinois.
(Charles died at the age of 7 years of scarlet fever.)

The other children of Phillip and Agnes brought to their marriage from each of their first marriages and are in their household in the 1870 U.S. Census of Williamson County, Illinois were:

Elizabeth, born 1852 Ebry (female), born 1857 William, born 1860 Julia, born 1863

NOT IN CENSUS, BUT HALF-BROTHERS: Landon Grey Ike Grey

These children could have been by Agnes' first husband, Ike Grey.

James "Phillip" Turnage, Jr. was a strict father to his children according to stories told to his granddaughter, Ruth (Turnage) Stephens.

In 1867, Phillip Turnage was living in Township 10, Range 2, in school district 2 of Williamson County, Illinois and paid person property taxes of $1.46 in state tax, $1.47 in county taxes and $2.94 in school taxes on $147.00 worth of property valued at $190.00.

He also paid $1.99 in state taxes, $2.00 in county taxes, $3.20 in school taxes on 80 acres of property in Section 7 of Williamson County, Illinois valued at $2.00 per acre.

(The two aformentioned paragraphs are referenced on pages 43 and 194 of taxes for that period in Williamson County, Illinois.)

James "Phillip" Turnage, Jr. is listed as Phillip Turnage in the 1870 U.S. Census of Williamson County, Illinois in Township 10, Range 2, with a post office address of Pulley's Mill, page 32, lines 31 through 36 inclusive, dwelling #229, family #229.

Phillip was a farmer of substantial wealth. His land was valued at $500.00. Non-family members in the aforementioned paragraph were John Bell, age 15, a farmer labor, 2 girls, and a 10 year old boy.

"Phillip" Turnage is also in the 1880 U. S. Census of Williamson County, Illinois, Southern Precinct, line 18 through 23 inclusive, dwelling # 215 and family # 215, Ida Crigg (Craig) born 1862 is listed as daughter and Milinda Crigg, born 1880. is listed as a granddaughter are also in this household. They lived 5 farms away from Phillip's brother, Reuben P. W. Turnage.

James "Phillip" Turnage, Jr., died 5 October 1883 at the age of 58 years, 7 months and 20 days. He died of congestion of the brain caused by typhoid fever. He was buried at Old Crab Orchard Church in Williamson County, Illinois on 6 October 1883.

After his death, Agnes filed a formal petition for guardianship in Williamson County, Illinois Circuit Court for her son James ("Jimmie") Phillip Turnage III, on 19 May 1884.

Agnes Mahala (Grey) Turnage probably died sometime after 1884 and is probably buried in Williamson County, Illinois.

TURNAGE FAMILY ANCESTRAL RECORD

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES FOR JAMES PHILLIP TURNAGE - 468 AND ELIZABETH (
DONIHOO) TURNAGE - 469
Author: Deborah Sue (Gardner) Evetts - 964

James Phillip Turnage was born in 1794 in South Carolina. He moved alone and/or with his family to Warren County, Kentucky in the early 1800's and no later than 1816. James Phillip Turnage married Elizabeth Donihoo on 24 March 1816 in Warren County, Kentucky. (Reference: Warren County, Kentucky, County Clerks Office, Prom Book "A", page 262.) James Phillip was about 22 years old at this time of his marriage. They were married by Edward Turner. He could read and write, proof is his signature on his brothers marriage bond. (Copy of marriage application in our files.)

James Phillip is in the 1820 U. S. Census of Warren County, Kentucky, page 446, line 18. (Copy of census record in our files.)

James Phillip is also in the 1830 U. S. Census of Warren County, Kentucky. (Copy of census record is in our files.)

He is in the 1850 U. S. Census of Calloway County, Kentucky where he moved his family in 1835 to 1837. He and family are listed on page 459, family # 178. He was a farmer and owned real estate valued at $ 400.00. A woman named E.A. Ogden (Elizabeth A. (Turnage) Ogden, widowed daughter of J. P. and E. (Donihoo) Turnage) lived with them. Also in the household is a brother of Elizabeth (Donihoo) Turnage, J. Donihoo, born in South Carolina, age almost illegible, probably 43 years old. This J. Donihoo is listed as blind. (Copy census record is in our files.)

Next door to James Phillip and Elizabeth (Donihoo) Turnage in the 1850 U. S. Census of Calloway County, Kentucky, page # 459, family # 179 is a T. Turnage, age 25 with his wife M. (?) Turnage. He is probably one of the older sons of James Phillip and Elizabeth (Donihoo) Turnage and probably named Thomas Turnage after the assumed brother of James Phillip Turnage, i. e., Thomas Turnage, who was married on 27 December 1815 in Warren County, Kentucky and witnessed by James Turnage and James Donihoo. (Copy of this marriage certificate is in our files.)

There are two land deed records in Calloway County, Kentucky for James Turnage. In Deed Book "H", page 190-191, it records that on 4 Nov 1836, James Turnage bought land for $164.00, "transferred unto the said James Turnage and his heirs and assigns forever" in Section 6, Township 2, Range 4 East and bound as follows, "Beginning at the second black oak and double black oak and south of the sectional corner, 130 poles then on 161 poles to a black oak, then south 94 poles to a post, and the East 92 poles to a stake to James Hart and south 94 poles and 5 links to a black oak sapling on a branch thence east 68 poles to a stake of black oak, then north 154 poles and 5 links to place of beginning containing 100 acres " from Wm. Hart.

In Deed Book "J", page 422 - 424 on 21 November 1856, there's a record of a land dispute or land deed entered by James Turnage in Section 6, Towwnship 2, Range 4 East of Calloway County, Kentucky by waters of Rockhouse Creek. Also note he sold some land, as mentioned, on 16 November 1853. (See copies of land deed records are in our files.)

James Phillip Turnage moved to Williamson County, in Southern Illinois like his sons did a couple years before.

James Phillip Turnage lost his loving wife, Elizabeth (Donihoo) Turnage of almost 40 years who died in Williamson County on 3 September 1855.

Between 1856 and 1859, James P. Turnage married a second wife, Letetia (?), born in 1810 in Tennessee.

James Turnage, with his name spelled the old way as "Turnedge" is in the 1860 U. S. Census of Williamson County, Illinois in Township 10 South, Range 2 East, page 252, lines 37 through 39 inclusive, dwelling # 1952, family # 1750, with a post office address of Marion, Williamson County, Illinois. James was a farmer with $700.00 worth of real estate and $400.00 worth of personal property, His daughter, Martha J. E. Turnage still lived with her father in this census.

Elizabeth (Donihoo) Turnage was born 8 April 1796 in South Carolina and died in Williamson County, Illinois 3 Septmber 1855. Her parents were James and Delila (?) Donihoo. (Reference to her in section concerning James Donihoo.)

As a very young child she moved with her family to Warren County, Kentucky, where she met and married James Phillip Turnage in 1816 at 20 years of age.

Elizabeth could not read or write, but she surely was a good mother to her children. She died before she had to see three of her sons go off to the Civil War.

Elizabeth (Donihoo) Turnage is buried in the Stephens Family Cemetery in West Marion Township (section 28). Her gravestone states she died on 3 September 1855 at 63 years, 4 months, 25 days. Three rocks are next to her grave, —one is the resting place of her beloved James Phillip. Her youngest son, Reuben P. W. Turnage, is also buried in Stephens Family Cemetery.

Her sandstone gravestone was still in perfect condition after almost 127 years, when first viewed by this author in 1982. The writing was quite legible because the stone had suffered little from exposure to the weather. It had been protected for years by a fallen tree resting about 6-12 inches above the top of the gravestone.

TURNAGE FAMILY ANCESTRAL RECORD

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES FOR HENRY L. TURNAGE - 476 AND MARTHA A. (BUTTS)
TURNAGE - 482
Author: Deborah Sue (Gardner) Evetts - 964

Henry L. Turnage was born in 1830 in Warren County, Kentucky. He moved with his parents James Phillip and Elizabeth (Donihoo) Turnage and family from Warren County, Kentucky to Calloway County, Kentucky before October 1840. Before December 1853 Henry L. crossed the Ohio River with two of his brothers. Henry L's son, William "Will" Henry Turnage, was to tell the story to his own son, Robert "Rob" Ezra Turnage, how Henry L. and his brothers left their home to come to Southern Illinois to find work. These young men brought a dog with them, but the dog was not allowed to cross the Ohio River on the same raft-boat as the three young men. So one of the brothers walked along the river bank until he found a narrow place in the river and then he and the dog swam across the river, then went back to meet his brothers where they landed on the Illinois side of the Ohio River.

Henry L. Turnage was 5' 9" tall. of fair complexion, blue eyes and dark hair. He was a farmer. On 22 December 1853 he married Martha A. Butts in Williamson County, Illinois. The ceremony was performed by Reverend James Oglesby.

Martha A. Butts was born in 1830 in Tennessee. She was supposedly an Indian who passed on the Indian traits of black hair and black eyes to her daughter Julia Ann Josephine "Josie" Turnage and Josie passed on these traits to her daughter, Molly. Martha could not write, but her mark can be found in Williamson County, Illinois court records when she filed a claim for a federal pension as the widow of a veteran (Henry L. Turnage) on 18 March 1865 and again on 17 December 1881. (Copy of records is in our files.)

Henry L. and Martha A. (Butts) Turnage, both age 30 and their first two children are on the 1860 U. S. Census of Williamson County, Illinois in Township #9, Range 2, in dwelling #167. He had $100.00 worth of personal property. (Copy of records is in our files.)

On 15 August 1862, when his youngest daughter was exactly four months old, Henry L. Turnage, enrolled in the (Civil War 1861-1865) Union Army. Private Henry L. Turnage joined his troop, Company "G", 128th Regiment, Illinois Infantry Volunteers under Capt. Wm. Huffstadler, on 26 September 1862 at Camp Butler in Springfield, Illinois. By 1 April 1863 this company was reduced from 860 men to 161 men mainly by desertion, so the men left were transferred to Company "H", on 7 October 1863 under Capt James Clements and Colonel Philipp, commanders of the 9th Illinois Regiment, and again in July 1864 to Company "C" of the 9th Illinois Infantry.

By early May, 1864, the Union Army marched from Dalton, Georgia, living in Atlanta Georgia in July, 1864. Battles were fought on this march, near Resaca, Georgia; 60 miles south at New Hope Church; at Kennesaw Mountain, Georgia in June where 2,500 Union soldiers were killed. On 22 July 1864, the Battle of Atlanta took place. About 26 July 1864, Private Henry L. Turnage deserted near Atlanta, Georgia and returned home. Family tradition says that he was sick and wanted to go home where he could be cared for.

On 16 January 1865 Union soldiers came to the Henry L. Turnage home in Williamson County, Illinois and arrested Henry for desertion. Henry was sick and had to be delivered to costody in a wooden wagon. This day was the last day his family was to see him alive. Upon his appearance at the military post in Mounds City (near Cairo), Illinois, the army promptly hospitalized him in the post hospital on 18 January 1865. Alone, and separated for his wife and his three children, Henry L. Turnage died in the post hospital on 20 January 1865. (The army medical records show him admitted to P.H (Post Hospital), Cairo, Illinois on 18 January 1865 with delirium tremens and died 20 January 1865, cause delirium tremens). (In accordance with The American Heritage Dictionary, New College Edition, delirium tremens means: "An acute delirium caused by alcohol poisoning. Also shorten to "D.T.'s.")

Henry L. Turnage was buried with none of his family in attendance to mourn him, in the National Military Cemetery at Mounds City, Illinois. His burial number there is 3285. (Copy of his Civil War military record is in our files.)

William "Will" Henry Turnage, son of Henry L. and Martha A. (Butts) Turnage, told his son Robert Ezra and his daughter-in-law Ethel Belle Ishamel (Williams) Turnage, that he was told when he was 8 years old that "he had to be the man of the house, now that his father was dead."

Like many hundreds of thousands of other families that were forever changed by the "War Between the States", the Turnage family's suffering began on that September day in 1862 when the head of the household put on the blue uniform of the soldier and did not end for over twenty years. Martha was left alone to feed and care for her two children and her new baby when Henry went off to war. This was hardship enough for any woman. But like other women alone in this war, this was not to be the only hardship to be faced. Things got worse. William "Will" Henry Turnage related to his son, Robert Ezra, that he remembered the Union soldiers being at his house, confiscating the cow and chickens, and his mother sitting down and crying after the soldiers left. Then, the ultimate loss for Martha — her Henry died when his daughters were ten and three years old and his son was eight years old.

Now Martha was truly left alone to rear her children. She applied for a pension (Civil War Veterans) from the government to help support her young family, but this appeal was denied. The doctors in Cairo, Illinois said Henry died of "delirium tremens"—attributed to abusive drinking of liquor. Thus, not only was Martha denied a small amount of aid in raising her family, but she and her children were to live with the disgrace of tarnished reputation of their beloved Henry.

Martha was a strong woman. She raised her children and never remarried. She was proud of her husband, Henry and she raised her children to respect the memory of their father. Martha instilled in her children the the story of how Henry crossed the Ohio River, of how Henry bravely joined the Union Army, of how he had to march away from his home with this army and march over the ground in Kentucky where his family lay buried —and where Henry was born, and then march south to Georgia — so far away from his home. All of these stories Martha must have told her children on the quiet, lonely nights after Henry's death. And these young children remembered these stories—memorized these stories — and, in their turn, told their children about our brave Henry in his blue uniform.

Martha's agony ended on 3 October 1883 when she died at her home. Martha was 53 years old. She is buried in Old Crab Orchard Cemetery, Williamson County, Illinois. She lies alone as Henry lies alone down in Mounds City, Illinois National Cemetery. But two of their children are buried with Martha. Joel and Arleys names are listed on the back of the gravestone of Martha.

Martha's children again petitioned for a pension for their father's service after Martha died, but again the petition was denied.

Reuben P. W. Turnage is in the 1850 U. S. Census of Calloway County, Kentucky, in the household of his father, James Phillip Turnage.

Reuben Turnage was 6' 1" tall, of fair complexion, with blue eyes and light brown hair.

Reuben and his wife lived in St. Louis, Missouri, from 1903 to 1905. Reuben and his wife moved back to Southern Illinois. Reuben had a drinking problem, just like his brother Henry L. had suffered from.

Reuben Turnage left his wife on 14 January 1906. He returned home briefly in April, 1907, and sold everything of value in his leaving his wife penniless.

Reuben was granted a federal pension for Civil War Veterans under No. 554,157. Reuben resided in the Soliers's Home in Quincy, Adams County, Illinois. He died there alone on 5 April 1921. He is buried in the Stevens Family Cemetery and the monument shows he was a "Sargeant, Company "G", 128th Illinois Infantry ". His old monument is moss and lichen covered and tilted backwards.

Elizabeth (Stephens) Turnage made claims for part of her husband's Civil War Veteran's pension as her sole support on 24 September 1914. This claim request was signed by George B. BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES FOR WILLIAM HENRY TURNAGE - 483 AND MARGARET MELISSA (LANCE) TURNAGE - 484 Author Deborah Sue (Gardner) Evetts -964

William Henry Turnage was born 9 March 1858 near Mouser's Store near Marion, Williamson County, Illinois (3 miles south and 3 miles west on old State Route No. 13. William Henry was the son of Henry L. and Martha A. (Butts) Turnage. "Will", as William Henry Turnage was called, was a farmer and a coal miner for Peabody Coal Mines #2 and #3 in the winter when the mines were worked. Also, Will Turnage sometimes took horses from the local livery stable down to New Orleans, Louisiana, where the horses were raced. Will also worked around threshing machines in the fields and the flour mill in the summertime.

Will Turnage was raised by his mother, Martha A. (Butts) Turnage, after his father, Union Army Private Henry L. Turnage died when he was almost 7 years old. Will was a slow, easy-going, nice man, who was not very talkative. He always had a big moustache and smoked a pipe. Will's son, Robert Ezra, doesn't know if his father ever attended school. Will Turnage never drank to excess ---when he was in his seventies, however he liked a hot toddy before breakfast.

William Henry Turnage is in the 1860 U. S. Census of Williamson County, Illinois, Township #9, Range 2, page 823, lines 12 through 16 inclusive, dwelling # 167, family # 162 in the household of his father, Henry L. Turnage. He is also in the 1880 U. S. Census of Williamson County, Illinois, Southern Township, page 498 C, lines 3 through 6 inclusive, dwelling # 269, dwelling 269.

Margaret Melissa Lance married William "Will" Henry Turnage on 18 November 1880 in Williamson County, Illinois. The ceremony was performed by Thomas W. Chamness, Minister. Margaret Melissa was 18 1/2 years old and Will was 22 1/2 years old at the time of their marriage. Margaret Melissa had her first baby, a daughter, a year later. She had a daughter as her second child, then 5 boys in a row were born to her. The names of these children are:

Alberta "Bertie" Turnage, born 1881 Almerta "Mertie" Turnage, born 19 March 1883 Burl Turnage, born 1885 Ed Turnage, born 1887 Oscar Turnage, born June 1889 Monta Turnage, born 1891 Robert Ezra Turnage, 27 July 1893

Her sixth child, Monta Turnage, bled to death from his naval. Will Turnage buried this baby when he was 14 days old at the Old Crab Orchard Cemetery, Marion, Williamson County, Illinois near their home.

Margaret Melissa (Lance) Turnage was born 5 February 1862 in Williamson County, Illinois. Her father died 4 days before her ninth month of age — on 13 November 1862, Margaret Melissa Lance was called "Mag" later in life. She was raised by her mother and her step-father, James Price in Williamson County, Illinois. Her son does not know if she attended school. Margaret Melissa had reddish-brown hair, fair skin and light colored eyes.

Margaret Melissa drove a horse and buggy to the Carterville, Illinois Post Office to get a sack of U. S. Mail every day to return to Mouser's Store in Marion, Illinois. This way the farmers could come by Mouser's Store and pick up their mail. She also milked cows and churned butter as a homemaker.

Margaret Melissa (Lance) Turnage used to talk to her children as she was combing their hair; she would prompt her children to moderate their behavior to reflect their good family name. As she supposely said, " After all you all are better than the Phillips children. " This comment was made in comparison to the children of

Margaret Melissa's oldest sister, Sarah (Lance) Phillips. (The source of these comments is Robert Ezra Turnage, Sr. telling his son Robert Ezra Turnage, Jr., who told this author. Robert Ezra Turnage, Sr. probably heard this story from his older sisters who had strong memories of their mother. The story is about the Phillips Family --- Sarah (Lance) Phillips and Henry Phillips.)

On 29 January 1898, Margaret Melissa came down with pneumonia. It was called "winter fever" in those days. She steadly declined for 3 days she lived. While a deep snow lay on the ground outside on 1 February 1898 Margaret Melissa (Lance) Turnage died at age 35 years, just 4 days short of her 36th birthday. A wagon drawn by two horses would carry her body to Old Crab Orchard Cemetery (near Marion, Williamson County, Illinois), where she would rest with her baby son, Monta, who had died 7 years earlier. Her only daughters, Bertie and Mertie, rode with some of their girlfriends on the wagon with her mother's body to Old Crab Orchard Cemetery. Her husband, Will, was so sick at the same time that he could not get out of bed to attend her funeral.

Margaret Melissa's family was deeply grieved by her loss. Her family was to scatter out over the next two years and never be the same again after she passed away. Robert Ezra, the youngest child was only 4 1/2 years old when he was left without a mother. Her son Oscar remembered her by naming his only child, Margaret, after her. One of Robert Ezra's granddaugther, this author, was also to memorialize this brave, long-suffering woman, by naming one of her twin daughters, Melissa, after her, 78 years after her death.

William Henry Turnage is in the 1900 U. S. Census of Williamson County, Illinois in Marion Precinct, page # 9B, enumeration district # 117, lines 75 through 80 inclusive, dwelling #179, family #182, in the household of his brother-in-law, Andrew Grider and his sister, Sarah Elizabeth (Turnage) Grider. Will, a widower, is listed as a boarder with his two youngest sons, Oscar and Robert, who also lived with them. Will's occupation is described as stationary engineer.

Will, as a widower, lived with his sons in a log cabin on the site of the Veterans Hospital on the western edge of Marion, Williamson County, Illinois.

About 1905, Will married a second time, a woman named Hannah (?). She must have died around 1919, because from 1920 - 1940, Will Turnage lived with his son, Robert and his daughter-in-law, Ethel. Will Turnage died on 19 February 1940 in Marion, Williamson, Illinois (see his certificate of death in files) when he was less than one month from 82 years old. He was buried in Old Crab Orchard Cemetery near Marion, Williamson County, Illinois.

GEORGE BARRY CHAMNESS - 490 AND MARTHA J. E. (TURNAGE) CHAMNESS - 480

Author: Deborah Sue (Gardner) Evetts - 964

George Barry Chamness was born 26 May 1831 in Williamson County, Illinois. His father was Wiley B. Chamness born 1812 in Buncombe County, North Carolina, a descendant of William Penn. His mother Sarah (Krantz) Chamness was born 1812 in Robinson County, Tennessee, according to History of Gallatin, Saline, Hamilton, Franklin & Williamson Counties, Illinois, published by The Goodspeed Publishing Company of Chicago, Illinois - 1887.

George Barry Chamness was first married to Amanda Frey, who died in 1861. This union brought forth the following children:

He was later assigned to Company "H", which was consolidated with Company "A" of the 9th Illinois Mounted Infantry. He was mustered out of military service at Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky on 9 July. 1865.

George Barry and Martha J. E. (Turnage) Chamness are in the 1870 U. S. Census of Williamson County, Illinois, Township 10, Range 2, page 30, lines 1 through 9 inclusive, dwelling #207 and family #207.

George and Martha are also in the 1880 U. S. Census of Williamson County, Illinois, Southern Precinct, page 32, en. d. # 164, line 22 through 30 inclusive, dwelling # 281 and family # 281.

George was a farmer, His two sons, Elijah M. and Samuel, by his first marriage lived with him and worked on the farm with their father and their half-brother, George. A five year old girl, Annie Proctor, also resided in their household. They live nearby where Martha's family, (James Phillip and Elizabeth (Donihoo) Turnage) had lived for almost 30 years.

By 1900, George B. Chamness had moved his family to Creal Springs, Williamson County, Illinois. He is in the 1900 U. S. Census of Williamson County, Illinois, Creal Springs Precinct, residing in the town of Creal Springs, page #282A, enumeration district # 126, line 2 through 10 inclusive, dwelling # 208 and family # 208. An interesting note is that George B. Chamness served as the enumerator for this U. S. Census Bureau in the census.

George B. Chamness could read and write and his occupation is listed as hotel keeper. John Krantz, the younger brother of his mother, lived with them at this time. He was 82 years old and listed as a cooper. Also, a woman cook, Nancy (?), lived with them. George and Martha's son, George Davis Chamness, lived next door to them.

Family legend tells the story that the Turnage's threatened to dis-inherit Martha J. E. (Turnage) for marrying George Barry Chamness. This story was told this author by Mrs. Edna L. Sayers, granddaughter of George Barry and Martha J. E. (Turnage) Chamness. But time was to prove George to be a good provider as he owned 200 acres of good land (according the History of Gallatin, Saline, Hamilton, Franklin & Williamson Counties, Illinois by The Goodspeed Publishing Company of Chicago - 1887) and he was the propietor of the East Side Hotel in Creal Springs, Williamson County, Illinois. George as served his country honorably (Civil War 1861-1865) and had a good reputation.

George B. Chamness was a Justice of the Peace for Creal Springs, Williamson County, Illinois. He listed as running a boarding house in Creal Springs, Illinois in the listing of Creal Springs' businesses. George Barry Chamness died 12 May 1915 in Creal Springs and was buried in the Creal Springs Cemetery, Creal Springs, Williamson County, Illinois.

Martha Jane E. (Turnage) Chamness was born 25 October 1840 in Calloway County, Kentucky. She is the daughter of James Phillip and Elizabeth (Donihoo) Turnage.

Martha J. E. Turnage moved to Southern Illinois between 1853 and 1854. She is in the 1860 U. S. Census of Williamson County, Illinois, page 252, Township 10 South, Range 2 East, line 37 through 39 inclusive, in the the household of her father, James Phillip Turnage.

Martha met George Barry Chamness and agreed to marry him shortly after his first wife, Amanda (Frey) Chamness died in 1861. She immediately took on the job of step-mother to George's four young sons by his first marriage, John, Lane, Elijah and Samuel Chamness, when she married George B. Chamness on 20 April 1862, when she was not yet 22 years old.

Martha Jane was pregnant with their first child when George enlisted in the Union Army (Civil War 1861-1865). This author likes to think he must have loved Martha Jane very much to have married her and trusted her to raise his children by a previous marriage and bare their own child all alone, while he carried through his decision to go off to the Civil War.

Martha Jane was a courageous young woman. She had to care for six young children during the last part of the Civil War, as she had become pregnant again while George was home on leave.

She had a busy life, raising her own 5 children and her step-children and helping her husband act as the propietor of the hotel in Creal Springs, Illinois. However, Martha's life had its share of burdens, as Martha and George had five other children, born to them that died in infancy.

Martha Jane E. (Turnage) Chamness could also read and write, and she and George made sure their children received the proper schooling.

Martha Jane E. (Turnage) Chamness died on 25 November 1914 is probably buried in Williamson County, Illinois.

Uncle Bob double dated with Jeremiah Denton while both were Naval Academy cadets. Jeremiah Denton was a P. O. W. in the Vietnam War, one of those held the longest in captivity and the one to use the Morse Code with his eyes to tell that Americans were being tortured while being filmed by Vietnamese. Another of their fellow cadets, Jim Stockdale had been the senior officer of the P. O. W.'s (prisioner of war), but his resistence to his captors was so strong an influence on his fellow P. O. W.'s that he was isolated from the group, making Jeremiah Denton the highest ranking P.O.W. in the camp. Jeremiah Denton wrote a book entitled "When Hell Was In Session" on which a movie was made, starring Hal Holbrook. By 1980-82, Denton was elected as a United States Senator from Alabama.

Jim Stockdale of northern Illinois was also awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor after the Vietnam War.

When Robert E. Turnage graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy, his first assignment through the summer of 1946 was to supervise the newly arrived incoming cadets to help indoctrinate them to military life through the summer. At this time the upper classmen were away on a 60 day tour of duty at sea and then a 30 day leave.

While on this first assignment at the U. S. Naval Academy, Robert served under 12 administrative commanders at the academy. One of these commanders he came to know well was John D. Buckley. a former P. T. boat commander, and World War II hero. Buckley talked frequently with him like for 2 hours at night while they were waiting for "Taps Inspection". Buckley was in charge of the rescue of General Douglas A. McArthur from the Fortress of Corridor at Baatan in the harbor of Manila Bay in the Phillipines. It took two direct orders from President Roosevelt to get General McArthur to leave his men behind and allow himself to be rescued in a dangerous mission. Uncle Bob Turnage related these stories to me in 1983 while watching a television movie entitled "They Were Expendable", based on the WorldWar II heroic adventures of John D. Buckley and starring John Wayne. John D. Buckley had been awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Robert married Martha Burnett June 6, 1946 in Annapolis, Anne Arundel County, Maryland and to this union were born the following children:

Kathyrn Anne Turnage, born 9 May 1950*

Robert Jeffrey Turnage, born 22 April 1955

Notes: * Kathyrn Turnage married Dr. Harry Don McKinney and to this union brought forth the following children:

David Nathaniel McKinney, born 31 August 1978 Julie Ann McKinney, born 25 Dec 1980

Kathryn and Dr. H. Don McKinney lived in Germany, San Antonio, Texas and Fayetteville, North Carolina.

 Robert Jeffrey Turnage married Starla Dawn Moore May 23, 1981 and to this union brought forth the following children:

Robert Michael Turnage, born August 11, 1982 Lauren Michelle Turnage, born March 14, 1986

Uncle Bob, served a tour of duty at the Naval Air Station at Port

Leade, 100 miles north of Casablanca in French Morocco for two years from 1951 - 1953. His wife and baby daughter joined him 3 or 4 months after he reported for his assignment, and lived there with him under adverse conditions.

From 1953-1956, Robert E. Turnage served as a mechanical engineer instructor at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland. During this time, he frequently met many famous world leaders such as United States President Carter and the First Lady, Roselyn Carter, top commanding officer of the Prisioners of War in Hanio, North Vietnam, Jeremiah Denton and head of the CIA.

Robert E. Turnage retired from the United States Navy as a commander.

Turnidge genealogy

Mr. Woodham,

My name is Michelle Shreve and I am the daughter of a Turnidge. I began doing genealogy research just two months ago and found your site by accident today when I was looking at message boards on Genealogy.com. I was reading some of your replies to peoples queries when I came across your reference to the Turnage Family Association. I have read through your site and it is quite interesting. I commend you for your hard efforts through the years. You mention a William Turnidge in England that has taken and used some of your research without permission. I was wondering if this is any relation to David Turnidge, also in England, who has sites on Ancestry.com and Rootsweb listing the Turnidge family tree. In your books do you refer to the Turnidges that went from Missouri to Oregon? I would be interested in ordering them if so. I am also confused by the way you worded your home page opening paragraph, stating that "if you are descended from a white Turnage, then you are part of the family represented by this family club." Maybe this sounds naive, but is there a Turnidge line that isn't white? This would be news to me. How many members do you have in your association and how many states are represented? I get the feeling that it is mainly just the southern states. If you would like info on my parents, etc. please E-mail me back.

Thank you, Michelle

BEACH CHALET

One recent evening during a sandstorm of mysterious fury along the Great Highway, my dinner companions and I experienced paroxysms of pleasure at the Beach Chalet, a lively brewery and restaurant located at the west end of Golden Gate park, with its glorious ocean vista and dreamlike view of the sunset. Entering the city-owned, terra-cotta-tiled building completed in 1925 by famed San Francisco architect Willis Polk and restored two years ago by the Recreation and Park Department, Beach Chalet's first floor is renowned for its beautifully restored murals, mosaics, and wood carvings from the 1930s depicting life in San Francisco. Upstairs, restaurateurs Lara and Greg (Gar) Truppelli have created a festive and casually elegant destination with their handsome brasserie. Awaken the senses with five different microbrews by brewmaster Scott Turnnidge who describes his ales as "mother's milk," piquantly infused vodkas, and exceptionally delicious and robust meals by the highly regarded Executive Chef Richard Radcliffe who prepares American bistro-style dishes laced with the flavors of Northern Europe, American Southwest, Cajun/Creole, and Asia. Appetizers I strongly recommend are the delicately fried calamari, with shaved fennel and housemade cocktail sauce, the magnificent mussels steamed in Scott's English-style ale, with roasted peppers, scallions, and ale-garlic sauce, and grilled pizzetta, topped with roasted peppers, artichokes, smoked mozzarella, and basil puree. Entrées not to be missed are the grilled portobella mushroom steak with sun-dried tomato sauce, grilled asparagus, and fried polenta, the braised fresh seabass, calamari, and mussels in coconut lemon grass curry and rice noodles, and the grilled salmon filet with salsa verde, grilled asparagus, and mashed potatoes. For dessert Pastry Chef Kevin Carr creates a heavenly apricot-blueberry crisp with vanilla bean ice cream, a yummy triple berry tart, and dark and dense chocolate fudge cake. Open for lunch and dinner every day. 1000 Great Highway 415-386-8439. [rating:

The Geezers

A band blending contemporary & old-time sounds. See our playdates below. mailto:bbbloomis@earthlink.net

he Geezers as of 7-22-01, photo by Beverly Loomis. From eft, back: Mike Robertson, keyboard and guitar; Jim runelle, bass, backup vocals; John Barclay, harmonica. ront: Chris Gotsill, electric guitar, vocals; Diane Moncur, ocals & percussion; Bob "Grampie Geezer" Loomis, ocals, plectrum banjo, guizouki and mandolin. Not hown, Scott Turnnidge, drums. Geezerpalooza 2001 on ept. 15 was great, but we had our lowest turnout yet, ecause of the aftermath of uncertainty after the terrorist ttacks in New York and Washington. We dedicated this ear's event to the victims. Jon McNally took some great ics of this year's event that we'll post ASAP. We are laying out fairly regularly now and listing the dates and ocations here (see below). If you are not on our e-mail list nd want to be, contact us by using the button above and e'll add you.

Who We Are

Our motto: "Whatever happens, happens." We play a wide variety of songs in an old-timey/rocknrolly style including numbers by Kate Wolf, Bob Dylan, the Grateful Dead and traditional folk and blues tunes. We also feature originals, and we've got some good ones, IOHO.

We play in various configurations, but these are the current players when we're all present:

Bob "Grampie Geezer" Loomis, 62, journalist. Writes songs, performs on vocals and plays mandolin, tenor guitar, plectrum banjo, 5-string banjo, and percussion as needed. A founding member of the original trio and the sort-of group leader.

[and others]

Scott Turnnidge, 30-something, master brewer for the Beach Chalet in San Francisco (that's a plug). Performs on drums and percussion. When Scott's there, he and Jim are a dynamite rhythm section, but Scott's job won't allow that much. He did play almost all of GPY2K and almost all of GP98 & GP99. He's Grampie Geezer's son-in-law. His brews are as good as his drumming and that's the highest praise.

We hope to post some new photos and some music tracks one of these days, and we'll update our schedule from time to time via the photo caption. E-mail us any comments on our Web site. We're available for gigs within an hour of Concord, CA, so let us know if you're interested.
