Robert Earl,

Here is the Bible record you requested; unfortunately, not only the title page, but also the front cover and the first pages of Genesis are gone, so I cannot date the Bible. However, the type appears old, at least from the latter 19th century, judging from the style. There were also some pamphlets tucked in the pages; I send you xerox copies of these also.

Since you will have trouble trying to decipher this, I have typed each birth, marriage and death to file with the Bible record. Wheelers, Kimbros, Holmses, and others are related by marriage to our Turnage family. The important births, children of Junius Turnage, are recorded on the family group chart.

Dr. Peyton Green of Wytheville, Va. wrote a letter to R. P. Terry, Meadows of Dan, Patrick Co., Va. on June 26, 1903 as follows: "My Dear Sir:-----Your great-grandfather's name was JOHN TERRY. He lived in Chesterfield Co., Va. and your grandfather JOSEPH and his twin brother THOMAS were born there. Soon after they were born he moved to Buckingham Co. Where he was born or died or how old he was or who his wife was we do not know. He (JOHN TERRY) had seven sons as follows: JOSEPH, THOMAS, BENJAMIN, JOHN, STEPHEN, WILLIAM, JAMES and a daughter SARAH. Joseph was your grandfather - Thomas was my wife's great-grandfather. Stephen had no family. William had no family. James moved to Tenn. Benjamin lived in Franklin and Pittsylvania. John remained in Buckingham. Sarah married a man named John Oakes. I have written to Tenn. but haven't been able to locate any of Jame's people.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

On August 26, 1972 my daughter, Violet Louise Rogers Draughn and I went to visit my cousin Pearl Turnage McLain in her home on Route 7, Laurel, MS. Our primary reason for this visit was to copy family geneological information from the William Randolph Turnage family bible which was in Pearl Turnage McLain's possession. Mrs. McLain and her daughter, Cynthia McLain, read the information to my daughter, Louise, as she recorded it for her geneology file. When they had finished Louise read it back to Pearl and Cynthia to make certain it was correct.

Pearl Turnage McLain is now infirm and is in a nursing home at Collins, MS. The aged bible is very fragile and Mrs. McLain will not permit anyone to take the bible to a copier to photostat the register pages.

As a child I can recall visiting my maternal grandmother, Mary Ponder Turnage, wife and widow of William Randolph Turnage, and seeing this bible kept on the side shelf of an old 'pump' organ. Mary Ponder Turnage lived the last few years of her life with her son, Chester Turnage, father of Pearl Turnage McLain. At her death Chester Turnage, my uncle, claimed all of her belongings. I am positive this is the family bible and all of the information is a true record of the William Randolph Turnage family.

I am the daughter of Effie Eliza Turnage Roberts and a granddaughter of William Randolph Turnage and Mary Ponder Turnage.

Robert Earl.....As I mentioned, I could not sleep last night....as soon as the LA state archives opened at 9:00 am, I looked up the death record of Elizabeth Rebecca Turnage (don't know why I never thought of it before)...they did not have a place for the fathers name but it did give her mothers name, "Betsy Rowley"...I really appreciate your informing me of this. Below is the information you requested on the children. Unfortunatley I know only the grandchildren of the line which involves us. I will try to gather up the remaining names of grandchildren and send them in the future to you..

Would you have the parents of Betsy Rowley...also of Martha Shathfoid?

>From the family bible of WILLIAM RICHARD BULLUCK PITTMAN (1858-1932) and ELIZEBETH REBECCA TURNAGE (1863-1933) marr. Dec. 25, 1879 in Marion County, Miss. (both died in Webster Parish, Louisiana) children include:

Berkley Cornelia Pittman	bn. 01/21/1881	marr. Corrie Herring
