ELDER R. R. TURNAGE

Brother Turnage was born in North Carolina, August 1, 1831; and died at his home near Hathorn, Miss., April 11, 1913. He came to Mississippi with his mother when 14 years old and settled in Marion County where he spent the greater part of his life. In 1853 he married Elizabeth Rowles. To this union ten children were born - nine of whom are still living. After the death of his first wife he married Emily Lofton in 1899. She is still living.

Brother Turnage was a preacher of the Gospel for 41 years. His labors were mostly with the churches of Marion, Lawrence, and Covington counties. He was instrumental in organizing a number of churches. Many of the preachers who have gone out from this country think of him as their father in the ministry.

He was moderator of the Pearl River Association for a number of years, and very much loved and respected by his brethren who labored with him. He was buried at Society Hill church, near his home, on April 12, 1913, the writer of this conducting the funeral service, assisted by Brethren J. O. Buckley, S. D. Cox, and E. A. Hanlow.

R. Drummond.

In 1908 T. D. Cox was elected pastor. Roy Powell was clerk and J. R. Lott acted as Sunday School superintendent with 81 enrolled. There were 236 members with 25 baptisms reported that year. Rev. L.F. May was called as pastor in 1909.

Something happened between 1910 - 1912. The church lettered out a great host of people or revised their roll, perhaps leaving out those whose addresses were not known. Professor Hill, who was principal at Buford High School near there at the time says, that the Kokomo Baptist Church was organized in 1910 and perhaps a large number were in the organization of the Kokomo Church.

In 1912, the membership is reported as being 182, but the next year (1913) it was 200, with 22 baptisms reported. The Sunday School had 42 enrolled with A. C. Mullins serving as superintendent. Rev. J. E. Davis was elected pastor in 1912. Also in 1912, 32 members were dismissed from our fellowship for the purpose of organizing the Hurricane Creek Baptist Church.

Four year later (1916) Rev. W. A. Murray was elected pastor. That year the church received $158.65 in contributions and had a membership of 179. The church clerk was Alvie Pittman.

Then in 1918 V. C. Walker became pastor and C. D. Turnage became church clerk. The membership was 181 and in 1919 the members numbered 194. In 1920 there were 44 baptisms reported and the membership had increased to 243. Gifts reported that year were: Mission Fund - $75.00, visiting minister - $69.00, pastor's salary - $145.00 and miscellaneous - $313.00. The church property was valued at one thousand dollars.

A. C. Mullins serving as Sunday School superintendent for the past 7 years was now clerk for the church. The pastor's salary increased to $200.00 in 1923. The Sunday School had an enrollment of 135 members. In 1927 the church began to hold meetings on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month. Bro. Walker was receiving $300.00 annual salary and the total given to the church that year was $773.50. The property value increased to $3,140.00.

Church meetings were held on the second Sunday of each month. Meetings were held at this time the New Hope school house. The first year 22 were baptized. A total of $5.00 in contributions is recorded for that initial year.

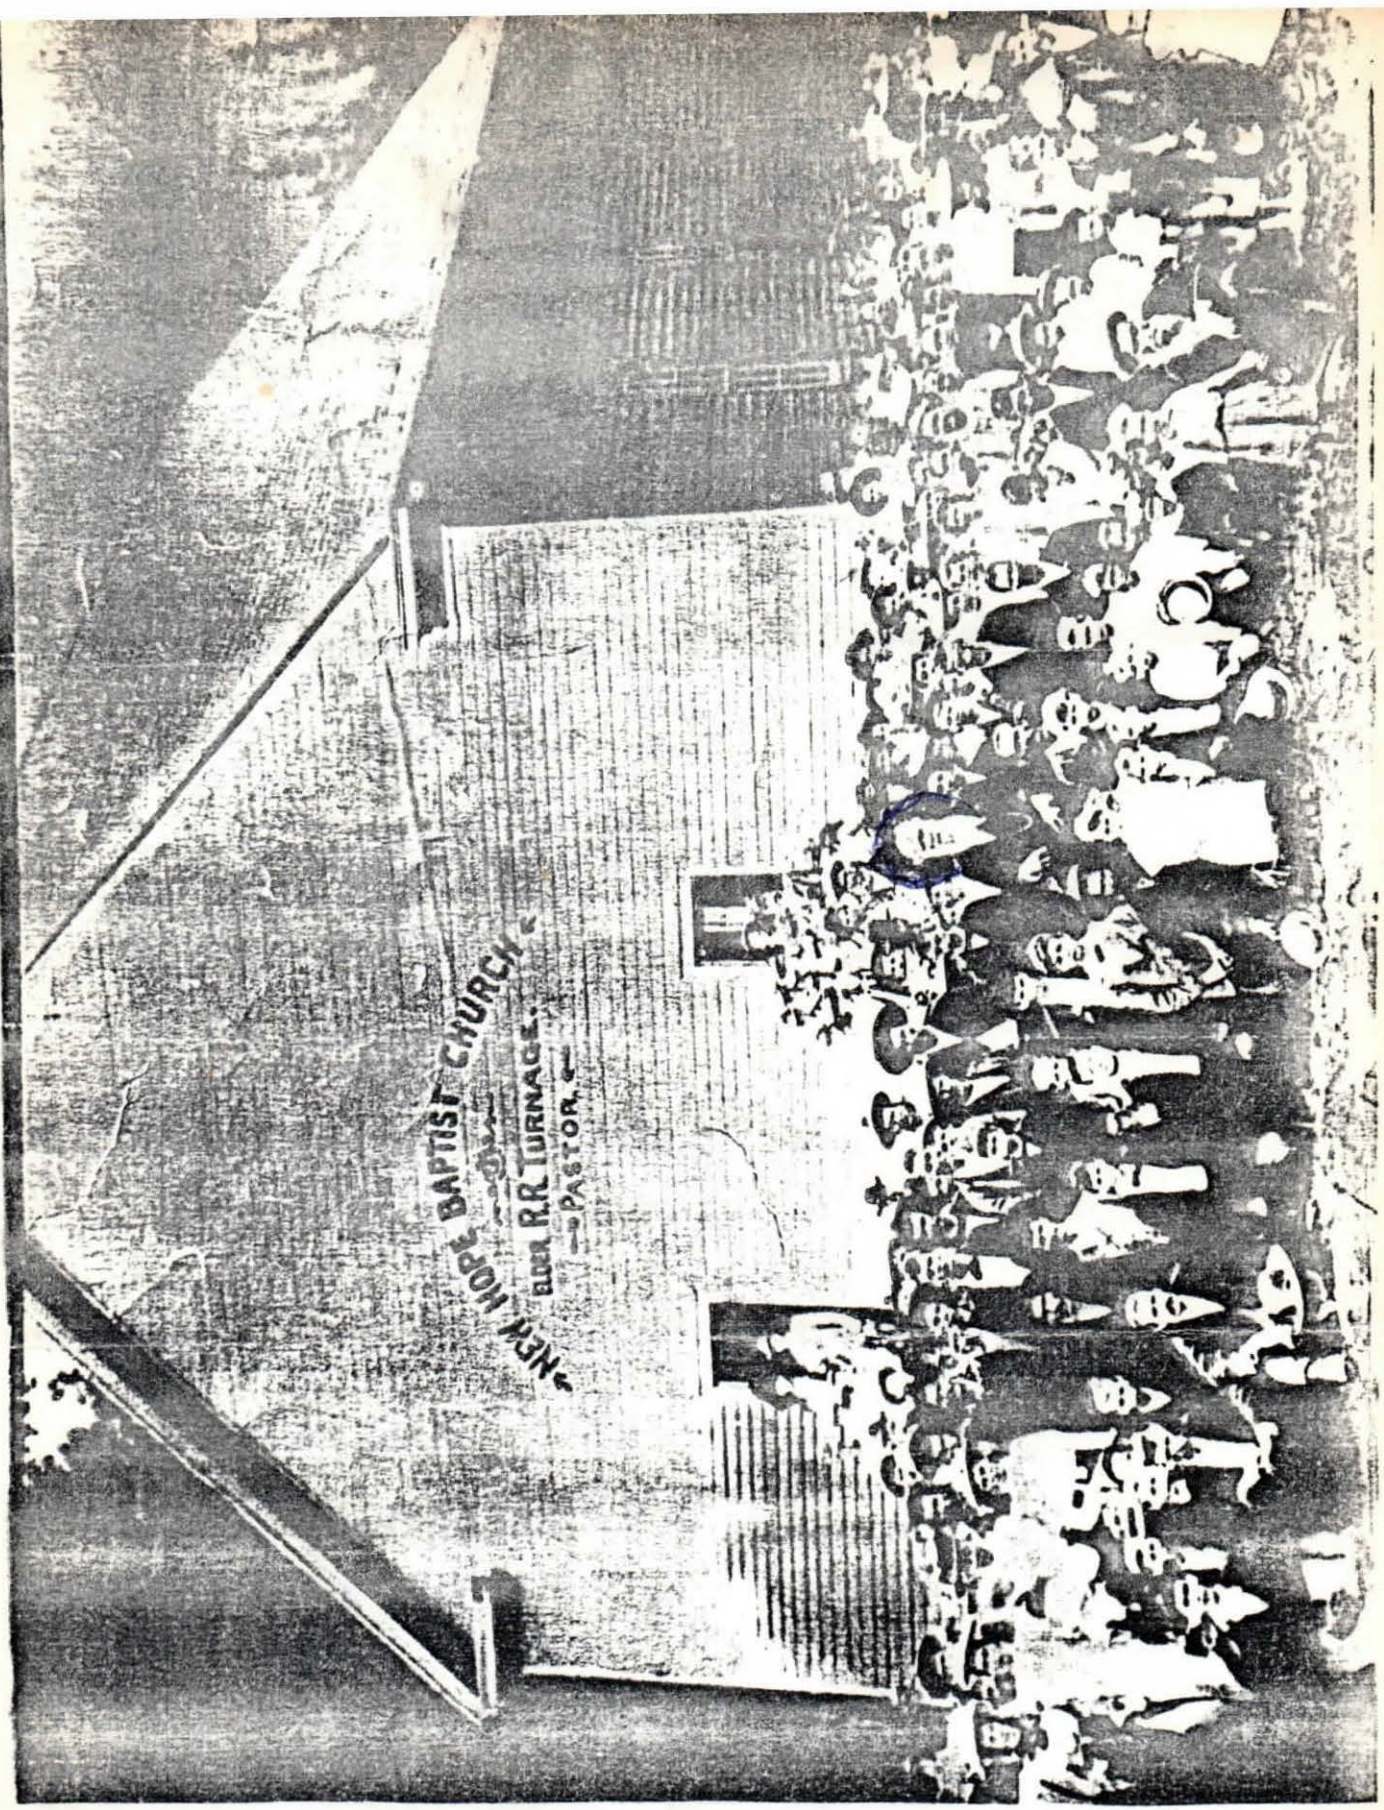

The New Hope Baptist Church of Marion County, joined the Pearl River Baptist Association in 1872 with a total of 42 members. The delegates were J. B. Pounds and G. H. Turnage. In 1876 N. W. Pittman deeded 3 acres of land to New Hope Baptist Church. A one room wood church building seating 500 people was constructed that year. The first church was located where the pastorium is presently built.

By 1877 the church had 77 in membership; 78 in 1882; 95 in 1884; and 161 in 1888. In 1887 the total value of all church property was $250. In 1892 there was reported 8 baptisms.

History of Zion Hill Baptist Church

Union Parish, Louisiana

Compiled by Nell Odom-Williams
Submitted by Mary Davis-Odom

On September 4, 1841, Zion Hill Baptist Church organized northwest of Farmerville off Highway 15 on Parish Road 3603. The organization of the church and the first services were held in a split log school building one mile east of the present site. The first building was used for church worship until the close of the years- 1848.

The charter members of the church were as follows: David Hendrix, John Ferguson, Betsy Handly, Mary Wainright, Sampson J. Larkin, Sampson B. Thomas and Shadrick Jones.

In the organization of the church, at the time the names were selected, Samson J. Larkin, Samsom B. Thomas and Shadrick Jones acted as the presbytery. Following the business session, the doors of the church were opened for the reception of new members. Ellen Hodge united with the church on profession of faith, becoming the first member of the church to unit by baptism.

On October 5, 1841, the church met in a business session and elected David Hendrix as church clerk, and John Ferguson and David Hendrix as deacons.

The church had no regular preacher. Regular services were carried on by the deacons and church members. On July 10, 1844 Rev. Haywood Alford visited the church and preached it's first sermon on that date. He was called as pastor of the church and accepted, becoming the first pastor.

In the early days of the church, negros were admitted to membership. The first negro member was a man named Mason and was united with the church on November 24, 1844.

David Hendrix resigned from the position of church clerk after having served for a period of three years and five months. T. B. Pollard was elected to the office.

Kairos is a ministry by men and women drawn from a broad range of Christian Churches. The purpose of Kairos is to bring Jesus Christ to inmates and to build strong Christian communities within the environment of correctional institutions. Kairos is active in ten prisons in South Carolina.

The Kairos experience begins with a three-day short course in Christianity, Thursday evening to Sunday afternoon. The program is based on other three-day weekends, such as Cursillo, Walk to Emmaus, Tres Dias, etc. The primary objective is to prepare participants for life in an ongoing Christian community. The weekend is attend by forty-two residents, chosen by the Chaplain and the Warden. Every attempt is made to include both the positive and negative leaders of the prison population. A monthly reunion involving the residents and team members encourage residents to deepen their Christian walk and involve themselves in small prayer and share groups in the prison.

A Sketch of Early Primitive Baptist History in Oregon

Early Oregon History

American Captain Robert Gray, master of the ship Columbia, of Boston, discovered the Columbia River from the Pacific, on May 11, 1792. Lewis and Clark entered Oregon territory from the east by 1805. The Pacific Fur Company founded a trading post in the territory in about 1811. A few white settlers may have arrived in the Willamette Valley as early as 1834, but the Oregon Trail was actually opened by "Doc" Newell, a mountain man, in 1841.

The following figures indicate the numbers of emigrants who reached the Willamette Valley by the Oregon Trail prior to 1849, when the trail was altered radically by the California gold rush: 1841 - 32; 1842 - 197; 1843 - 875; 1844 - 1,750; 1845 - 3,000; 1846 - 1,500; 1847 - 4,500; 1848 - 1,000. Total - 12,854.

Oregon became the 33rd State in the Union in February 1859.

Early Movements of the Primitive Baptists in Oregon

William H. Vaughan, an early member of the Molalla Church, came to Oregon in 1843 with the "first train that came all the way through." Christopher Columbus Cooley and James Officer, and their families, early members of the Molalla Church, were in the "The Lost Train" of 1845; in fact, James Officer was the captain of the train. Miraculously, they were found and managed to reach The Dalles by October 1845, after becoming lost in the Oregon desert late in the year. Several other Primitive Baptist families settled in the Willamette Valley in 1846. One was Elder William Simpson, a native of North Carolina who had lived in Tennessee and Missouri before coming to the Pacific Coast. He settled first at North Yamhill in Yamhill County, but then moved to a donation land claim in the Waldo Hills, east of Salem. Another family, led by Elder Joseph Turnidge, a native of Missouri, settled near the North Yamhill River, but in 1848 acquired land between the forks of the Santiam River near Scio. A third family, that of Nicholas Shrum, formerly of Tennessee and Missouri, also acquired a donation land claim in the Waldo Hills.

Elder Isom Cranfill, a native of North Carolina who had also lived in Tennessee and Illinois, arrived at Oregon City in September 1847. The same year Elder Abraham Miller, Jr., a native of Tennessee who had also resided in Illinois, settled near Millersburg in Linn County. In 1848 Elder John Stipp and Brother John T. Crooks, both natives of Virginia and former residents of Illinois, arrived in Oregon. Many other Primitive Baptist families also made the long, dangerous journey over the Oregon trail.

The First Primitive Baptist Churches Established in Oregon

The first Primitive Baptist Church in Oregon territory was called Hillsborough (the name was changed to Siloam in 1855). It was organized on February 27, 1847, by Elders William Simpson and Joseph Turnidge, with ten charter members.

The second church, Molalla, was constituted near Clackamas City, on October 10, 1848, by Elders Cranfill and Turnidge, with six charter members.

The third church, Little Bethel, was organized on November 12, 1848, with six charter members.

The Santiam Church was organized sometime previous to the formation of the Siloam Association, but the exact date is presently unknown. Elder Joseph Turnidge was probably a charter member of this church, and possibly its only pastor.

Primitive Baptist Contributions to Early Political Life in Oregon

Brother John T. Crooks (1807-1896), the first clerk of the Siloam Association, and a charter member of the Little Bethel Church in November 1848, and also Nicholas Shrum, an early member of the Siloam Church, were both participants in Oregon's constitutional convention in 1857. Crooks later served in the territorial and state legislatures. Benjamin Simpson, son of Elder William Simpson, also served in the territorial legislature. E. T. T. Fisher (son of Ezra Fisher, a Baptist missionary who came to Oregon in 1845, when his son was only ten years old) married a daughter of Elder Ezra Stout and joined the Primitive Baptists; he served in the state legislature in the early 1860's.
