Susan Montague lived in Mississippi when she and John met in Memphis, Tenn.

1860 White County, Arkansas (US Census)

J. D. and Susan were living in Union Township at Strong Point in White County, Ark. He was a blacksmith, with $1,500 worth of real estate and $6,000 worth of personal property.

John D. Turnage enlisted in Company H, 51st Tennessee Volunteer Infantry, Confederate States Army during the War Between the States. In 1862, He was guarding a wagon train loaded with cotton bound for New Orleans. When the city fell to the yankees' army, the wagon train was rerouted to Texas, where it was attacked and captured by yankees. John D. was wounded (not known when). His wife dreamed that he came home, fell off his horse and died. He did just that, on the very next day.

The original deeds to the 16th Section School and Church were signed by John and Susan. (donated by them ?)

1860 White Co.

John obtained a federal homestead of 120 Acres, located in Section No. <sup>D.</sup> 21
