

TURNAGE FAMILY WILL HOLD FIRST NATIONAL REUNION

The Turnage family of America will hold their first Turnage National Reunion on Saturday and Sunday, June 28 and 29, at Lakepoint State Park in Eufaula, Ala.

This first national reunion is expected to attract several hundred Turnages and their descendants from throughout the United States. It will be the first time in almost 300 years that the Turnages have had an opportunity to gather. Since the founding members of the family came from England to the colonies, the Turnages have spread from North Carolina throughout the South and the rest of the country.

As the family grew and spread from coast to coast, family members lost contact with each other and memory of their common heritage was forgotten. Today, most family members are unaware of their kinship to Turnages in other states.

The Turnage National Reunion is the first project sponsored by the newly formed Turnage Family Association. The organization was established as a means for helping reunite Turnages and to promote research on the family's history. In addition to an annual national reunion, the association will sponsor a family newsletter-magazine, help sponsor local reunions, gather and preserve family history and publish booklets frequently so all the family may share knowledge of their heritage.

The national reunion is being held in Alabama's newest resort state parks. Lakepoint State Park includes a lodge, golf course, camp grounds, two beaches, two swimming pools, lounge, boat marina and other recreation facilities located on a 40,000 acre lake. The reunion headquarters will be in the park lodge.

Activities will include a large picnic Sunday in the park's picnic area. Families are asked to bring baskets to spread together. Lectures on family history, a display of hundreds of family records, social gatherings, parties and recreation will also be featured.

All rooms in the park's lodge are already filled. However, space in the state park's campgrounds is still available but reservations are required. Space is also available in several private motels in Eufaula. For further information, call (404) 568-4343 or contact Turnage Family Association; P.O. Box 1916; Smyrna, Ga. 30081.

I sent this to our Fla Cousins -
Thought you might want to pass along -

30 June 1980

Dear Cousins,

A lot of business transpired after our original meeting where you nominated me chairman of the Florida Turnages. I wish to report this information to you as I believe most of you left before the end of the reunion. I believe everyone had a great time. It was sure nice seeing all those new Turnage faces, some of which were recognizable thru features.

A temporary board of directors was nominated from the state representatives. A list is enclosed for your information. (you have copy)

Next year's program has already been organized and I feel sure the committee will come up with a wonderful social program next year.* Here is the schedule:

Reunion dates: August 1 and 2, 1981. The lodge has set aside 50 rooms from July 31, thru August 2, for reservations. These may be yours by requesting them. Mention the Turnage Reunion when applying.

Agenda: 8/1 Saturday

10:00-12:00 Register - fellowship
12:00-2:00 Lunch (Individual)
2:00-4:00 General Assembly - FUN
5:00-6:30 Business Meetings for Committees
8:00 until Banquet (Casual)(Will run approx. $10.00 per person - Buffet)

8/2 Sunday

10:00 Assemble (same room as banquet)
10:30 Brunch

It was decided that $10.00 per family ($5.00 single member) per year would be collected for dues to cover postage and printing. One does not have to be a dues paying member to belong to the Turnage Family Reunion.

The name of the organization temporarily is the TURNAGE FAMILY REUNION until details can be worked out with Robert Earl Woodham about the TURNAGE FAMILY ASSOC. Robert Earl will publish the Turnage Family Tribune. His health isn't in good shape so don't know when the next issue will be forth coming. However, funds will be provided to him to publish the tribune.

Please let me know of any local family reunions that may be held. This information will be passed on for publication.

Fondly,

"Cece"
